Huge crowd enjoys concert

A packed, standing-room-only crowd enjoyed nearly three hours of skits, songs and music last Thursday, as Elk Point Elementary School celebrated the season with their annual Christmas Concert.

The Tuesday and Thursday ECS class opened the program with a story in song, "Away In A Manger", while their Monday and Wednesday counterparts gave a Christmas greeting from the "Class of 2000" with an upbeat "My Two Front Teeth". ECS teacher is Mrs. Dahmer.

There were many volunteers from the Grade 1A class, to replace the missing top of Santa's Christmas Tree, in a humorous skit by Miss LaBoucane's class. Something new, a shadow play entitled "Bethlehem", was performed by Miss Myshak's Grade 1C class.

A stressed-out Santa was sent on a Hawaiian vacation by his doctor in Mrs. Conrad's Grade 2B presentation, "Santa on Vacation". Is it any wonder that Rudolph had to come looking for him and all the aloha-shirted elves?

Mrs. Grykuliak's Grade 1B rhythm band took a tuneful approach, with 3 well-performed selections.

The friendly alien, ALF, helped out Santa in Mrs. Boothman's 2A class presentation, "An Alien Medley".

The Grade 5 music students presented two songs, "The Gingerbread House" and the "Huron Carol" and played "Deck the Halls" on their recorders.

A new look at peace talks was portrayed by Mr. Meger's Grade 6As, as they showed what could happen if the Washington-Moscow hotline and the Washington-North Pole hotline got mixed up.

The Grade 1Cs were back again to tell of their fears that they might get "Nuttin' for Christmas" because of their past bad behavior, which we're sure wasn't THAT bad.

Christmas Eve from the animals point of view was displayed by Mr. Hymanyk's Grade 3B class.

At last minute request for a jack-in-the-box showed Mrs. Way's Grade 3A class busy in Santa's Workshop, in a play called "The Jack-in-the-Box Christmas."

Nobody wanted the misshapen little Christmas tree, except the forest animals played by some of Miss Anderson's Grade 4Bs. The animals all brought decorations, and the lowly skunk made the tree glow with his gift of love, in "What Do I Have To Give."

The Grade 6 musicians then offered two songs, "Immanuel's Lullaby" and "Winter Wonderland", and played "Silent Night" on their recorders.

Santa came to Elk Point, and the Grade 5A students from Mrs. Poleschuk's class had many and varied requests when they made their "Visit to Santa."

Grade 4 music students entertained with "Caroling, Caroling" and "Jingle, Jingle, Jingle."

Mr. Bilak's Grade 5B students took time to search for the real meaning of the holiday, in "Looking for Christmas".

Christmas Texas-style, complete with Santa and Mrs. Santa doing the Line Dance, was portrayed by Miss Grabas and her Grade 4As, in "A Big Christmas".

Everyone's favorite alien is homesick for Christmas on Melmac... so homesick he almost hops a space ship back there, with Lucky in his suitcase, when the grade 6B's, under direction of Mr. Sereda, presented "Christmas with Alf" to wind up the program.

Winners of the ECS draw were: Lucille Smith, gingerbread house; Charlene Smereka, lollipop tree; and Val Goulet, needlepoint ornaments.

TEACHER HONORED — Edith Way, Grade 3A teacher at Elk Point Elementary, is presented with a Christmas bouquet by Principal Don Conrad who praised her efforts toward the concert. Mrs. Way will retire in June.

Council winds up 1987

Elk Point Town Council wound up their 1987 business Monday evening with one of the shortest meetings of the year. All business was tidily dispatched in just over 1½ hours.

Irene Miller and Lena Stepa were reappointed to the Municipal Library Board, for a 3-year term commencing January 1, 1988. The many contributions of time and effort by the two ladies during their now-expiring term, were recognized by Council.

Ken Klushin, Vice President of Klushin Construction, met briefly with Council to discuss Progress Payment #7 on the Highway 41 reconstruction project. Council later voted to consult with Alberta Transportation before making Klushin a payment offer through the firm's solicitor.

Accounts payable included the final payment on the recreation land, which was approved by Council.

A request for funding toward a handi-van for the Municipal Hospital from the Provincial Transportation Operational Assistance Grant was referred to the Community Services Committee for review and consideration.

AWAY IN A MANGER — Elk Point Elementary School E.C.S. Tuesday and Thursday portrayed the story of the Holy birth in song, at last Thursday's well-attended Christmas concert.

Chamber telegram to no avail

A telegram sent to the Secretary General of the Canadian Radio and Television Commission (CRTC) early this month was to no avail, President Ed Buck told the Elk Point Chamber of Commerce at last Wednesday's regular meeting.

The telegram, sent December 4, stated that the Chamber, on behalf of local cable television subscribers, approved the purchase of the Elk Point cable television service by A-1 Cablesystems of Edmonton, on condition that service on CBC Channel 2, CTV Channel 4 and CBXFT Channel 6 be substantially improved from the present quality of reception.

A letter received from the CRTC last week told the Chamber that the telegram had come approximately three weeks too late to have any bearing on the hearing into the purchase of the cable system. To be considered, all interventions had to be on hand by November 17.

The problems with cable reception in Elk Point date back to the time it was first installed. Troubleshooters have never been able to discover what causes the poor reception. It is a stipulation of the permit to provide cable service, that Canadian channels 2 and 4 must be offered.

Buck said it is up to the franchise holders to "do whatever it takes to make it work". He suggested waiting until early in the new year to see if there is any improvement, before contemplating further action.

The meeting also heard a report from the Economic Development Committee, which has met with their counterparts from Town Council. Hopes were expressed that additional government services and another doctor are on the horizon for Elk Point.

Plans for the Chamber's annual meeting were discussed, with the majority voting for a supper meeting at the Empress with a guest speaker, to take place in February. Election of the 1988 executive will be carried out at that time.

Christmas deadlines

Because of the Christmas holiday on Friday, deadline for all advertising for the December 30 issue has been advanced to noon Monday, December 28. News will also be accepted until that time.

The Review office will remain open until 3:00 p.m. on Thursday, December 24, with normal office hours Monday through Thursday of next week, December 28 to 31.

VICTIMS OF A VEHICLE — Two of the posts slated to hold the Elk Point Historical Society Mural fell prey to a vehicle Saturday evening. Elk Point R.C.M.P. has since tracked down the person responsible.

Christmas is caring

Just two days to go ...

Excitement and preparations are escalating all over the country, as Canadians prepare for the biggest holiday of the entire year: Christmas.

For most of us, the day means an orgy of torn wrapping paper, new toys underfoot, and feasting with the family, while carols play and colored lights blink on a tinsel-draped tree.

It isn't like that for everyone, however. In this country, even in this province, maybe even in this area, there are people who will spend the day hungry, cold, and alone. They have no family with which to share the occasion, no feast, no cosy fire to curl up by. Others have families who will eat macaroni for their Christmas meal, and will have no gifts to give each other. Some may not even have a roof over their heads, warm clothing and footwear, or even a glimmer of hope for the future.

It isn't fair, is it? Some of us have so much, while others have so little.

Many of those who have more than sufficient for their family's needs have reached out this year, donating food, clothing and gifts, along with cash, so that others may at least have the basics of a nutritious meal, and some small gifts for their children. The Santa's Anonymous organizers in Elk Point report a very successful year, which indicates that generosity is not a lost art in this community.

With less than 48 hours to go before Christmas arrives, it may be late to start making donations. However, it isn't too late to invite a lonely person to share Christmas with your family, to visit a shut-in, to call someone who is far from home this holiday season. Local churches may well be aware of others who could use your help to have what we think of as a modest Christmas celebration.

Christmas is so much more than what we ourselves receive and enjoy. It's what we can do to help those less fortunate, and what we can share with others -- even if it is only our time.

Giving -- that is what Christmas is REALLY all about.

Blessings of the season to you and yours.

Christmas morning breakfast

By Irene Magnusson

Everyone has a million recipes for puddings, cakes, and cookies, and lots for turkey soup and fancy stuffings. So here is an egg recipe, suitable for a special breakfast, and certainly the eggs could be hard-cooked ahead of time.

Eggs a la Goldenrod

1 tablespoon butter

1 tablespoon flour

1 cup milk

½ teaspoon salt

dash of pepper

a little chopped parsley

3 hard-cooked eggs.

Method:

Melt the butter in a double boiler, blend in flour, add milk gradually and cook over hot water, stirring constantly. Add seasonings and parsley. Chop the whites of the hard-cooked eggs and add to the sauce. Heat well and pour over fingers of toast. Force the yolks of eggs through a sieve over the sauce, and garnish with a sprig of parsley.

This is a bit fussy for everyday, but nothing is too good for Christmas Day - or New Years Day. I'm sure margarine could be used in place of the butter. These old cookbooks are very heavy on the butter - cream, too. And it makes my mouth water when I think of it. No one ever uses cream like the people who milk their own cows, and make their own butter, too. And the pasturized store cream and butter will NEVER taste the same.

Recitation for country school concert (1920)

"Do You Believe in Santa Claus?"

But anyhow when Christmas comes I'm going to hang my stocking!

-anon

Little Harry had 25 cents, with which to buy his sister a Christmas present. He went to the shop, made his choice. At home mom asked what had he found. "The only thing I could see for 25 cents was a cream puff" says Harry. "But, dear, that won't keep until Christmas!" mom said. "I thought of that, too, on the way home," said Harry, sadly. "So to save it I ate it."

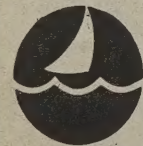

Contributed by Irene Magnusson

"Do you believe in Santa Claus? I asked my Uncle Billy, And he said, "Of course I do, and don't you be so silly!" My brother Tom, he thinks he's smart and said, "Now Jane McPherson, I grieve to state this simple truth, There is no such a person." And father said, "Well now my dear, you'd better ask your mother." And mother said, "Well never mind, don't listen to your brother." And grandma said, "Just wait and see," and kept right on a-rocking.

Letter to the editor

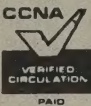

No one will deny that charity begins at home. The great challenge to our generosity as Canadians is to address the fears and insecurity of those people whom we do not personally know and who have no social services to buffer them against hunger, illness and unemployment. In developing countries, such as Mali, Mozambique, Bangladesh and Nepal, thousands of people earn less than a dollar a day, and live constantly on the edge of disaster. USC Canada has been heartened by donations from old and new friends across Canada, but postal disruptions cut into our Fall fund raising and we are still short of our campaign target of 3.2 million. Every dollar counts a lot and is urgently needed. Kindly send your donation to USC Canada, 56 Sparks, Ottawa, Ontario K1P 5B1.

Sincerely,

Just for you at Christmas

I wonder IF you know the real reason
I send you a card, every year at this Season?
Do you think it's a habit I just can't break
Or something I do, just for custom's sake?
I think I should tell you, it's something more.
For to me - Christmas opens the Friendship Door,
And I find myself reaching across the year -
And clasping the hand of somebody dear.

And pause and reflect, and always renew
The bond that exists, since we first met,
And I found you somebody I couldn't forget!

National Juniors tour

To me, it's a link I wouldn't want broken,
That binds us together, when words are unspoken -
For off through the year we have to forego
Exchanging good wishes with those we know;
But Christmas opens the Door of the Heart -
And whether we're close - or far apart

When I write your name, I think of you,

Hockey fans in northeastern Alberta are certainly in for a treat on December 28 and 29, a hockey treat with an international flavor besides. The Finnish National Junior team is in Canada to participate in the Camrose College Viking Cup, commencing January 1. This team last visited Canada for the same tournament in 1981, of which they were the winners.

In preparation for Viking Cup play, the Finnish team has confirmed arrangements to play two exhibition games in northeast Alberta. On Monday, December 28 they will take on the Alberta Central Junior League leading Bonnyville Sabres, while on Tuesday, December 29, they will play against the Centennial Hockey League leaders, the Bonnyville Pontiacs. Both games will be in Bonnyville's J R Lalonde Arena.

Playing with the Pontiacs on this special occasion are former Junior B players Kerry Loughran and Terry Wozniak, now with the Elk Point Elks, Brian Halfe and Dan Houle of the Goodfish Flames and Lindsay Haag from Saddle Lake's Centennial League team.

Game time both nights is 8:30 p.m. Tickets are $6.50 for one game, $10 for both, and may be obtained at Capital Drugs in Elk Point.

The Finnish Nationals will have practise sessions from 8 to 10 a.m. on December 29 and 30 at the J R Lalonde Arena, with autograph sessions to follow.

NEW INVENTION REMOVES IRON & SULPHUR SMELL IN WATER

When Lil Letniak, shown here, retired with her husband Peter, to Alberta Beach, Alberta they faced many new experiences. Among these, was dealing with their own water supply.

"We have high iron and sulphur in our water," said Lil. "It stained our fixtures, left red streaks in the laundry and it had a very strong smell. It caused an iron bacteria growth and left a reddish-black slimy deposit on the toilet tank."

"We talked with a representative from Big Iron Drilling at the Spruce Grove Trade Fair. They came to our home and tested the water. Because it has high iron and sulphur, they recommended an Automatic Iron Filter with an IronEater. It is really doing a good job and it has eliminated both the iron and sulphur smell." "Big Iron Drilling is well-known in the area and we like to deal with a company that we know," said Lil.

IronEater is manufactured exclusively by Big Iron Drilling Ltd., and is used in Marvel's water treatment equipment. It is a device that works like a sandblaster in water, and when the filter backwashes, the IronEater scrubs the iron and sulphur off the bed. IronEater can be installed in existing iron filters and water softeners or can come supplied in new units.

The Big Iron Drilling line of water treatment is designed to handle the difficult problems typically found in well water. It can remove sodium, iron, nitrates, hardness, sulphur, bacteria and many more contaminants found in well water. The IronEater is manufactured uniquely by Big Iron Drilling Ltd., and is not available through any other water treatment company.

Health and Welfare Canada says: "The appropriate health authorities should be notified when the sodium concentration exceeds 20 mg/l." (Guideline for Canadian Drinking Water Quality, 1978-p. 46.)

Seniors enjoy Christmas party

By Irene Magnusson

Eighty-five to ninety Pioneer Circle members got together for a festive evening in the Centre at Elk Point, not allowing a drop in temperature to interfere.

Jean Slywka's team from the Empress Cafe supplied a super turkey 'n' more fixings than you can imagine supper, served hot and tasty. The ladies had decorated the hall and a lovely tree was also lighted. The white covered tables with Christmassy centrepieces were inviting.

As the crowd gathered, Violet McFadyen, member, put everyone in the right mood with a selection of Christmas music and other pieces on the piano.

Master of Ceremonies, Sid Holthe, welcomed all, as did President Mike Palinka. Florence McGinnis read a short poem of thanks to the Lord as a blessing.

Guests Dr. and Mrs. McNeilly arrived, but he was immediately called out to an emergency. However, he was able to return later.

The draws were made immediately after supper, with door prizes going to Iryne Buck - 1st, Violet McFadyen - 2nd and Deanna Lief - 3rd. The raffle draw was made, Zillah Campbell the lucky winner of a beautiful afghan created by Anne Buck. This effort has brought $500 into the Building Fund.

Mrs. McNeilly then showed slides taken by Dr. McNeilly in India, showing the spectacular Taj Mahal, over 400 years of splendor. There were also many slides of an older palace, built around 900 years ago, Irene McNeilly said in her interesting and informative commentary.

A group of four young couples from the Mennonite Settlement near Dewberry came in, and offered an assortment of Christmas carols, harmoniously rendered - and much enjoyed by all.

Ron Barwick, a senior from before most of us, read a dissertation on "What is a Senior?", an amusing run-down of the many inventions, customs and additions to our lives since present-day seniors were born.

A few carols were tried by the group, but we have forgotten the words. Later, a group gathered around the piano with Olive Berg and enjoyed some old time singing.

Cakes, coffee and a delicious punch concocted by Lil Sass, were offered throughout the evening, and I believe it is fair to say a jolly good time was had by all.

Christmas out our way

By Mildred Dunham

Ferguson Flats, Primrose and Lindbergh once again enjoyed the annual Christmas concert organized by the Ferguson Flats ladies and held at the Ferguson Flats Hall Sunday Dec. 20. Young and old enjoyed taking part in amusing skits, having Santa come to distribute candy and gifts, eating lunch and just enjoying the Christmas cheer that floats around this time of year.

I would like to take this opportunity to wish Vina Hostvedt a Merry Christmas and the best in the New Year. Vina, formerly of the Primrose

- Lindbergh district, living in Edmonton - faithfully subscribes to this paper and searches for the "Out Our Way" column every week.

May the wondrous sights and sounds of holiday joy embrace you and yours this season and all the days through. Many thanks, friends.

Baptists hold joyful concert

The warm glow of candlelight and an atmosphere of rejoicing pervaded Elk Point Baptist Church last Friday evening, as the Sunday School presented their annual concert.

A group of tiny 2 and 3-year-olds, led by Mrs. Chalmers, outshone their cardboard-and-tinsel candles with their brief recitation and song.

Eight members of the Youth Group continued the candle theme, as each approached the platform carrying a lighted taper, recited a Bible verse and joined in the singing of "It Only Takes A Spark".

The "old, old story" of the birth of Jesus was read by Lawrence Modin, on behalf of the adult Sunday School class.

Shepherds, angels and the Holy family were personified by the Grade 1 to 3 students, under the direction of Mrs. McNabb, in "Star Over Bethlehem".

Young musician Stewart Peterson favored the group with a trumpet solo, "Little Drummer Boy".

Judy McNabb and her group of 4 and 5-year-olds starred, along with Rev. John McGregor and his family, in a unique slide and music presentation.

Briarcrest Bible College student Hope Gaugler touched many hearts with her meaningful narrative and song, "Give Them All To Jesus".

The Grade 4 to 10 students combined, under the direction of teachers Mrs. Modin and Mrs. Gaugler, for the final number, celebrating the miracle of Christmas.

Santa's coming

By Cody Bristow
Grade three, Clandonald School

If you want to hear Santa here's what you do
You may hear a Ho, Ho, Ho, that's your first clue.
Then you hear the crack of a whip as the power poles his deer skip.
You always hear a little jingle. Then if your lucky you might hear a tingle.
Then all of a sudden they're on the roof.
Then down falls Santa "Kerpoof",
He carefully fills the stockings.
On the roof you can hear his deer stomping.
Then he goes up to his sled with his hand over his nose.
Then he's gone then just the wind blows.

The Christmas day story

By Patricia Protsh

Grade 4, Clandonald School

It was a cold winter day and Christmas was coming soon. The children just couldn't wait until their favorite holiday was Christmas all the kids love this day. Even Santa Claus. Santa Claus didn't always get to ride his sleigh. And the elves didn't always get to make toys. But one day one of his elves wasn't there. He was looking for a reindeer.

The elf said "Boy Santa! Your wife wants to see you and she dosen't look very happy "Santa your elf is singing to a reindeer" "That's wonderful dear" "Oh I suppose your right I'm sorry" "Listen I hear the sleigh it's almost finished being filled up. Let's go now", said Santa. The next day kids were happy. And that's the story of Christmas Day.

Traditional brunch at FGM

SOUS CHEF AND INDUSTRIAL ARTS TEACHER — Blaine Easthope received tremendous applause when introduced by "Santa" Tredger at the F.G. Miller brunch.

It just wouldn't be Christmas at F.G. Miller High School, without the mammoth brunch cooked up by teachers and staff, and served to students, bus drivers and special guests.

Last Friday, a gymnasium full of well dressed students eagerly awaited the line of food-laden teachers, as "Santa" bade them a happy holiday.

"This is the staff's way of saying Merry Christmas," said red-suited, white-bearded Bob Tredger. "We're all fortunate to be part of the best school we know of, because of community support, because of the teachers and because of you people."

Tredger paid special tribute to the bus drivers "who take home more than their pay cheques — they take you home in a safe, cautious, caring way." He recognized the special efforts of teachers, such as Blaine Easthope, who with his students has constructed benches, tables, and firepits for the new Stoney Lake Park. He also praised the students as a group of "caring, enthusiastic people, who are a reflection of your community". School Board members Janice Van Maarion, Bill Ference and John Hutton were honored as "the reason the school can function as it does", under the present budget constraints.

Teacher Debbie Poulin, who will spend the rest of the school year on maternity leave, will be replaced by newcomer Randy Dutchak.

Special recognition was given to students Tracy Oryshchuk and Angie Miller, senior volleyball scorekeepers throughout the season, who were presented with flowers for their tireless efforts.

Joanne Wolanuk and Angie Miller announced the winner of the Old Fashioned Christmas decorating contest, with Christine Seniuk accepting the plaque on behalf of Room 7.

Then, accompanied by an aura of appetizing aroma, came the food — lasagna, ham, salads and all the trimmings — yum! A perfect way to end 1987 at F.G. Miller!

Saddle Lake takes home 7-4 win

Saddle Lake received an early Christmas gift Friday night, in the form of a 7-4 victory over Elk Point Elks. A good weekend crowd was on hand for the last pre-Christmas Centennial League game scheduled for A.G. Ross Arena.

The Elks opened the scoring, with Kerry Loughran scoring off assists by Delwin Slemple and Terry Wozniak,

Elks, OORP New Year's Eve planned

and Terry Wozniak scoring off an assist by Loughran in the first 5½ minutes of play. Saddle Lake then took over, slamming in 3 goals in the balance of the period to take the lead. Scoring for Saddle Lake were Darryl Buck, Hugh Makokis and Barry Macleod, while assists were by Robert Cardinal, Barry Macleod, Bill Halfe, Pat Gordeyko and Anthony Houle.

Saddle Lake again dominated the second period, although 19 of the 20 minutes were scoreless. Anthony Houle scored 31 seconds into the period, assisted by Ferlin McGilvery and Bill Halfe. Barry Macleod scored with just 25 seconds left on the clock, assisted by Hugh Makokis, to give Saddle Lake a 3 goal lead. Two Saddle Lake players were injured in separate incidents near the middle of the action packed period, which saw multiple penalties given out.

Macleod again scored in the first minute of Period 3, assisted by Eric Kakeesim. The Elks scored their third goal 8 minutes into the period, with Murray Cochrane assisted by Ryan Blume. Ferlin McGilvery scored the final Saddle Lake goal, with 4 minutes left in the game, while Ryan Blume was assisted by Kerry Loughran in the final Elks goal.

Further Education News

By Gladys Drobot

By printing time all Further Ed courses for 1987 will have shut down for the Christmas Season. 1987 has seen 410 people taking advantage of approximately 20 different courses. Some courses were offered more than once or in more than one location. Courses were taught in Heinsburg, Ferguson Flats, Sputinow and Elk Point.

The new catalogue is almost ready and the courses being offered are; afternoon quilting, make-up wizardry for the over 40 ladies, sewing for the home, sign painting, cake decorating, water color painting, homemade soups, Chinese cooking, creative writing and jazzercise. Some agriculture courses ( these are one evening sessions) are how to apply for grants; analyzing your farm business and farmer's know your rights. Others will be announced as they come up.

Quilting will go on Mondays starting on January 18, January 19 is the one day make-up wizardry course. January 20, the Department of Agriculture will have an information evening on how to apply for grants. January 21 will be the first day of sign painting Mr. Barwick and jazzercise with Bev Graham. Please register for these courses as soon as possible. These and all courses will run only if registration is paid up one week prior to the starting date. Watch for information in the Lakeland Review, the St. Paul Journal and the Vermilion Standard.

Heinsburg courses for the new year are sewing machine maintenance on January 25. Phone Marie Zayac at 943-3913 for more information. Body building; sun-bonnet- hoop wall hanging; Chinese cooking; fire safety-fire control on the farm; understanding county financial statements: Other possibilities are computer processing, financial planning, aerobics, braided rug making, art of scarf tying and a variety of short courses can be co-hosted with Alberta Agriculture. If there are any particular courses or topics that interest you feel free to ask.

Possible courses for Ferguson Flats are taxidermy, scarf tying and bridge. Fishing Lake is interested in household budgeting, taxidermy, first aid, how to apply for grants, Chinese cooking, dancing and aerobics.

The course calendars will be out in early January. If you don't get one in the mail, come by the office and pick up a copy.

The Further Ed office will be closed from Wed. Dec. 16 to Tues Jan. 5. You can reach me at 645-2540 during this time if necessary.

The Elk Point and District Further Ed Local Council would like to thank all who made Further Ed possible in Fishing Lake, Ferguson Flats, Heinsburg and Elk Point. We would like to take this opportunity to wish everyone a very Merry Christmas and the very best in the new year. We hope to see participation in Further Ed grow double this coming year and with your help it can. Merry Christmas.

Christmas party at the Lodge

By Irene Magnusson

Certainly it would be wrong to say that life for residents in the Heritage Lodge is 'just one big party' - but December has seen a lot of entertainment offered to seniors there. Groups have come a-carrying, some have danced - but the Christmas party of Thursday, December 10, will stand out, for that was their own party, family and friends were invited, all the decorations were up and a wonderful 'do' it turned out to be.

Visitors sat in the comfortable sitting room, enjoyed punch, getting in a bit of visiting before the buffet-type supper was called. There seemed no limit to the variety of dishes offered, some prepared by the staff, many brought by the guests, in potluck fashion. Tables (borrowed from church) were elegantly set, with white cloths and Christmassy decore, flatware gleaming.

Brightly decorated trees stood in both the dining room and sitting room, under silver and blue garlands, all making for a cheery friendly atmosphere.

Entertainment following the ample supper commenced with a group of children from Brownies and Guides, who sang carols.

Tables were put away, chairs set up by a willing staff, and a group of entertainers from the Lac Bellevue area offered several hilarious skits. The names I got were Ken Yettaw and several Tymofichuks (sorry, folks) but suffice it to say, they were funny, irreverent and entertaining!

Following this act, musicians Doreen Younghans, Willie Osinchuk, Carol Polowy and Leonard Sawak played a number of good old favorites, encouraging the group to sing along. Some were so 'lifted up' by the toe-tapping music, they arose and danced for a while.

When one considers that all this entertainment was cheerfully volunteered on the part of the performers, one can see that the Christmas spirit is alive and well around Elk Point.

The night would not be complete without a visit from Santa Claus, and he arrived just in time to distribute gifts to all residents from Matron Alvina Schuhmacher, who regally presided over the evening's events, despite still being on crutches, aftermath of a recent accident.

We know 'our' St. Nicholas was straight from the North Pole, but Walter Skolarchuk was noticed to be absent for a time - perhaps he was out holding the reindeer.

Snacks were offered to round out the evening, surely an evening enjoyed by residents, their invited guests - and probably the staff, too!

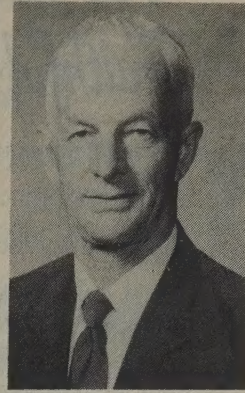

ROMPIN' STOMPIN' ENTERTAINERS — From the Lac Bellevue area were much enjoyed at the Heritage Lodge Christmas Party.

The Lioness Club would like to thank Stedman's, Bumper to Bumper, the Post Office, the Toronto Dominion Bank, the Treasury Branch and the Co-op for having our donation boxes and jars for Santa's Anonymous at their businesses. We would also like to thank the F.G. Miller High School for their donations.

Special thanks to the Co-op for their help in getting the food hampers together and also the Pop Shop for their donation.

Many thanks to the Lions, Oilmen's, Oilettes, the Elks and Royal Purple whose contributions enabled us to buy any extra toys and food for the hampers.

Thanks are extended to the support staff from the F.C.S.S., Baptist and United Churches for helping wrap the toys, and the distribution of the hampers.

Special appreciation to the individuals who donated many toys or food. All of your generosity has helped to make a joyous Christmas for 28 families, including 56 children.

We would like to wish all a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

OILMEN'S ASSOCIATION REPRESENTATIVES — Reo Van Maaron and Tim Holliday present Lioness Charlene Nixon with $300 toward Santa's Anonymous. Our apologies to Sandra Veenstra and the Oilettes, who also donated generously to the cause, however, their picture did not turn out.

Christmas comes to Elk Point area

By Irene Magnusson

Over in the Elk's Hall, in the afternoon of December 5, the Lions and Elks got together to host the town's children with a showing of the perennial favorite, "Pinnocchio", which, I was told, has lost none of its charm for young - or older-fans.

Don Conrad, from the Elk Point Elementary School, procured the film, Steve Andrishak, former theatre owner/manager, ran the projector, showing another case of community co-operation. The two clubs, Lions and Elks, have for the first time worked together to put on this entertainment for the children of the area, complete with Santa in all his "Ho, Ho, Ho-ing!!" glory, oodles of treats and a good afternoon of entertainment.

Later, after the clean-up and after all the kiddies (with a number of parents accompanying) had scampered out, some Lions and Elks, with Santa in tow, visited Seniors at the Heritage Lodge, Buckingham House, Fort George Manor and the Hospital, distributing treats, fruits and candies to all.

Elk's spokesman, Bill Schuhmacher, said the two groups, under leaders Tad Reed, Lions Club, and Walter Jendruck, Elks, hope to make this event an annual one. He termed it highly successful, with good weather, lots of kids and lots of fun for all.

The star performer of the show should not be overlooked, and while we don't want to disillusion any kiddies, perhaps those old enough to read this will want to know that Michael Habiak put on a 'really good show' for the young and old alike, was much enjoyed and appreciated by one and all. Our childhood imaginings may not have pictured Santa as quite so tall - but here in Alberta we like large-size packages!

"It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas," and over at the United Church Hall a visit from Santa during the Lioness Club's fund-raising for "Santas Anonymous" pancake breakfast, offered Saturday, December 5, at 10 a.m., brought that to the fore. Dozens of youngsters, some a bit shy of the red-suited fellow with the bushy white beard, gathered with parents and friends to enjoy buckwheat hotcakes, with butter and syrup, and buckets of hot chocolate.

The Lionesses kept the griddles hot, and the plates filled, and presently Edith Way's class of young people burst into song, bringing time-honored carols to the crowd.

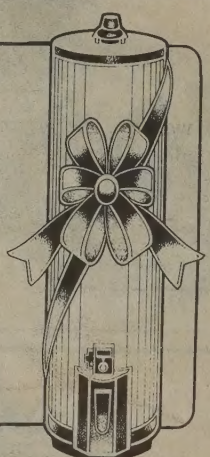

Meanwhile, the cash-bowl overflowed and gifts in the awaiting box piled higher. Surely the event must be termed successful.

Skating - the oldest winter sport

By Diane M. Huffman

Do you remember way back when...the family gathered at the local slough or dug out and cleared off the gathered winter snow and merrily skated away the Sunday afternoon? Well, many years have passed since then but traditions can still remain the same, with a few updated changes. Lots of people have been meeting Sunday evenings from 6:00 to 8:00 at the A.G. Ross Arena for a family skating outing. Tuesdays and Thursdays from 4:00 to 5:00 and Fridays from 7:30 to 8:00 (or 9:00 p.m.) and Saturday mornings from 10:00 to 11:00 are also scheduled hours. The Ag Society has set aside these times especially for the skaters 'just for fun'. As you all know, hockey is really big in Elk Point and occasionally tournaments will pre-empt the weekend ice times. The Ag Society will always try to add more hours during the week, so please watch the AGT Party Line or the posters on the Post Office telephone pole and the Co-op bulletin board for schedule changes or new hours. I'm Diane Huffman and with all your help we can add public skating to the list of winter pastimes in Elk Point. Please call me for schedule changes at 724-4137 or if you have any ideas for making public skating even greater fun. When you're at the Arena, please locate Caretakers Don or Sandra Woytkiw for payment if your family's ice fees aren't already paid up.

You've also probably noticed the excavation that went on behind the Arena in the early fall. Members of the Elk Point Lions Club donated, dug, leveled, dumped, picked and finally completed a large (120'x70') outdoor ice surface to accommodate any number of skaters at any time of day. Chairmen, Doug Bassett and Ron Johnson have been busy organizing all the work while Marshall Kachmar persuaded Jake Orr to supply the graders, John Oryshchuk to help with trucking the dirt and B & R for the time to pick the rocks. Thanks to all you guys for all your efforts in assisting the 'outdoor expansion' of the Arena. Also a special thanks to Don at the Arena for allowing folks to change and use the facilities inside and for supplying the water to enable Ron Johnson to flood. When (and if) we get snow, clearing the ice will again be a community effort with the help of Doug Bassett and B & R's equipment and smaller snow accumulations by the Arena's scrapers. Now, if Old Man Winter would co-operate and freeze the ground, our new ice surface would be ready for all you skaters by Christmas time. Everyone else's co-operation is needed in sharing this ice surface fairly between hockey and skating.

So folks, dig out those dusty skates from the basement closet and we'll see you at the Arena, either inside or out.

Children's day at Elk Point United Church features concert

By Irene Magnusson
Sunday, December 13, saw a full crowd gathered for the "Christmas Story in Song" at 10:00 a.m. in the church and a full stage, as a large United Church. "The Innkeeper's Story" as played by Kelly Ballas, in monologue, with costumed children acting out the many parts of the age-old story, was lovingly done.

Kelly, as the innkeeper's wife, reflected on the happenings of that long ago night, as the children appeared on the scene, as travelers, shepherds, soldiers, angels, wise men, and Mary with her Child. The congregation sang, throughout, the appropriate songs, at each step, ending with the beautiful "O Holy Night", as all the children posed in their places surrounding the Christ Child.

Idella Matthews introduced the group and carried them along, indicating when each song should come in. Children in the congregation seemed to enjoy the play, as did the elders.

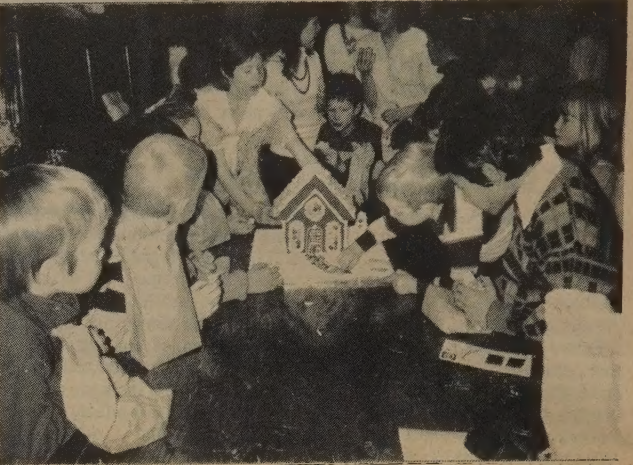

The second half of the program was called "Christmas in Verse", by the Senior Teens class and Bible Searchers. They opened with a piano solo by Callie Baumgardner, "The Drummer Boy", followed by a number of Christmas poems, and closing with the song "Do You Hear What I Hear?", sung by the dozen or so young people in the group. Pianists through the program were Edith Way and Debbie Lou Huskins, both giving enjoyable music for all.

The children then sang en masse, "We Wish You A Merry Christmas!" - and I'm sure they did, for there were smiles and enthusiasm all around.

Members and visitors were all invited to coffee and fellowship, and to watch the dismantling by the children of the fancy gingerbread house donated by Irene Lindquist. A very well-made house it proved to be, for the children were hard put to it to render it into bite-size pieces, but they did succeed at last. The adults had almost as much fun watching them, as the kids had smashing it up. All part of the joy of Christmas.

FULL CAST OF SHEPHERDS AND ANGELS — Took part in "The Innkeeper's Story", narrated by Kelly Ballas, at the United Church Sunday School Concert.

GOOD ENOUGH TO EAT — This beautiful gingerbread house was constructed by Irene Lindquist and enjoyed by the Elk Point United Church Sunday School students.

When all is said and done, it's customers like you who make us proud to be of service. We hope you have the best holiday ever!

SIXTEEN VOICES RAISED IN PRAISE — Elk Point United Church choir presented the Christmas Cantata on Sunday, December 13. They were accompanied by Debbie Lou Huskins and Edith Way in their beautiful program of hymns and carols.

A gift of music

By Irene Magnusson

It's been looking and feeling a lot like Christmas lately, and at the United Church, December 13, it was sounding a lot like Christmas, too. At 7:00 p.m. the church started to fill, and Rev. Sam Donaldson encouraged folks to sing along with Debbie Lou Huskins, Choir Leader, as she played the piano and Edith Way on organ.

At 7:30 Rev. Donaldson opened the evening's program with prayer and a call to the faithful.

The choir then took over, with a medley of Christmas carols, beautifully performed. Midway through the program, a dramatic solo was offered by Don Conrad, and later Ella Skawronski, of Lafond, gave a lovely solo rendition.

Readings of the events surrounding the birth of Christ were interspersed by choir members Terry Cameron, as the remainder of the program of hymns and Christmas carols was enjoyed by all. Mrs. Huskins accompanied the choir throughout.

Rev. Donaldson closed the event with prayer and the congregation closed with all raising their voices in song. The choir was applauded, then at the suggestion of Ron Barwick, willingly rose to offer a standing ovation. There was no doubt all were pleased with their 'gift of music'.

Several familiar faces were absent from the choir, from last year, but new ones were added, with seventeen singers filling the choir benches.

A delectable lunch was offered to all, showing art and craft among the oakers, too, with eye-appealing, exciting creations prepared with loving care by the members, just the right touch to round out a most enjoyable evening.

Merry Christmas

May your holidays be bright, beautiful, bountiful, and all your trails lead home!

Thanks from Save The Children

By Marnie McCowan

On November 18, 1987 we enjoyed a most inspiring visit with Philip Cox, Regional Western Director for Save the Children, from Regina, Saskatchewan, Janet Dixon, Western Chairperson of Community Sponsorship, from Edmonton, Alberta and Misty (Janet's dog).

We really had to wonder, after they had departed, what their impression of our group was. Try and picture this:

The door is opening and closing with people coming and going, crafts are spread over the dining room table, floor, coffee table and video machine, with goodie squares, coffee, tea, and juice piled on top. Janet is following Misty down the stairs, up the hallway, around the coffee table and onto the sofa. Janet is concerned you see, because Misty is in a strange house. We finally get Janet settled down and Misty feels more at ease without Janet on her tail all the time. Philip decides he would like to say a few words and while he is doing so, everyone gets up and wanders into the dining room, including Misty, to admire a Christmas gift, that Katherine, my daughter, has bought for friends. Philip gives up and Janet decides she will try and to a presentation on Community Sponsorship. While Janet is speaking, everyone is admiring the shoes Denise has just dyed from grey to black; discussing the bat (flying bat) situation, Marvin's new Elk Ranch, which squares taste the best (Misty has her own opinion) and Marnie leaves the room to put on something more comfortable.

Well, we didn't miss a thing. We're excited about the Community sponsorship program and will have more information for you after the new year.

We are pleased to announce, that as of December 5, 1987 we will be known as the Elk Point Branch rather than Activity Group. We worked hard to achieve that status and we couldn't have done it without the support of the people of Elk Point.

We would like to thank the merchant, and places of business for hosting the coin capsules. Thank you residents of Elk Point for your contributions and support of our group and the Canadian Save the Children Cause.

A few final words. Their impression of our group was, Wow! Philip asked what made the Elk Point group tick. Well Philip, I guess it's; unity, tolerance, caring enthusiasm, love, sharing with each other and caring for each other.

Merry Christmas and Happy New year everyone.

Old-style Christmas treat

By Irene Magnusson

Do many of you remember the good old "Free Press Prairie Farmer" weekly newspaper? It had Home Loving Hearts in the centre, letters from readers, pouring their hearts into the 'out there' - safe from detection, since they used Pen Names.

There was also a recipe and hints column, written by Mrs. Madeline Day - and I found a tear sheet, in an old McClary House-hold Manual, dated 1928, in the odds and ends of my Mother's house. The book is stained with age and use, but the clipping is fine.

Here is Mrs. Day's recipe for a Christmassy treat:

Card Gingerbread

2 cups molasses
1 cup shortening
1 tablespoon ginger
1 teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon salt
4 1/2 cups flour (about)

Heat molasses and shortening together, but do not let it boil. When cool, add other ingredients, using enough flour to make a stiff dough. Roll out into a 1/4 to 1/2 inch thick sheet. Cut in fancy shapes, gingerbread men, Christmas trees, Santa Clauses or plain squares or round. You could score the top with a fork, for decoration.

Bake in moderate oven for about 15 minutes. Cool thoroughly before icing, if you made fancy forms. This is very hard when first baked, but softens with time.

It seems to me this is a very simple recipe, but good, and one which the children might get involved with. What about making a little hole in the cookies at the top, before they go into the oven - then they could be hung on the tree with a bit of string.

CHRISTMAS MEANS TOYS — Leona Moneta (centre) of the Elk Point OORP Lodge delivered a colorful selection of toys to the Pediatric Ward of Elk Point Municipal Hospital, to the delight of the young patients and nurses Elizabeth Didow and Amelia Bowen.

Box office winner

"Batteries Not Included", the Christmas box office winner from Universal Pictures, starts playing at the Elite Theatre, St. Paul on Boxing Day. It brings with it the imagination and charm of "E.T." and the love and compassion of "Cocoon".

Set in an inner-city, a small group of tenement residents are about to lose everything when they discover their building has a date with the wrecker's ball. The residents fight back, but it rapidly becomes apparent that they are no match for big business and redevelopment...no match until some rather unlikely help shows up! Benevolent interventionists from outer space arrive and a hilarious battle to save the building begins.

The special effects are marvelous. The aliens, shaped like small toy spaceships, come complete with enough human personality that you end up wishing them believable. But then, isn't that the success mark of a good fantasy - one that leaves you knowing in reality they do not exist but maybe, just maybe they do?

Hume Cronyn and Jessica Tandy ("Cocoon") dropped out of retirement to star in this picture directed by Matthew Robbins. Steven Spielberg is executive producer. "Batteries Not Included" rated PG is a great picture for the whole family.
